MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, National Intelligence Council

FROM:

Assistant National Intelligence Officer for CounternarcoticsSUBJECT: Interagency Intelligence Memorandum: REACTIONS TO US-BACKED COUNTERNARCOTICS PROGRAMS IN THE KEY COCAINE
COUNTRIES OF THE ANDES

1. Attached for your approval to publish is the coordinated draft of the Interagency Intelligence Memorandum: REACTIONS TO US-BACKED COUNTERNARCOTICS PROGRAMS IN THE KEY COCAINE COUNTRIES OF THE ANDES. The IIM was requested by the Assistant Secretary/INR. [redacted] is the principal drafter.

2. Coordination of the IIM was completed on 2 May. The paper was generally well received, although the DIA and DEA representatives felt that the paper conveyed a very bleak picture of the future of US-backed counternarcotics programs. A consensus was reached to include a final paragraph in the Key Judgments depicting the likely scenario if the US were to pull back from its commitment to the support of the counternarcotics programs in the Andean region. The IIM has no dissents by an intelligence component nor by a law enforcement component.

3. The coordinated text has accommodated all of the suggestions made by the SRP. In the case of the economic impact of the narcotics industry on the Andean region, which the SRP emphasized for inclusion, the coordinating group decided to publish that as a box text.
